FORMER CHAMPION TO FACE MOLLA IN NET FINALS TODAY

Miss Browne Defeats Mrs. Hitchens — Mrs. Bundy Loses Thrilling Match.

FORREST HILLS, N.Y., Aug. 19.—The woman's lawn tennis championship of 1921 has been won by Miss K. Browne of Santa Monica, Calif., and Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory of New York. Saturday they will meet for the crown now worn by Mrs. Mallory. In the semi-final round play on the courts of the West Side club here Friday, Miss Browne, champion in 1912, '13 and '14, defeated Mrs. H. V. Hitchens of Mexico City, 6-3, 6-0, while Mrs. Mallory eliminated Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, the international sensation of the courts almost two decades ago, 6-5, 6-2.

Following the completion of the third round of the doubles, the four surviving pairs were called to the courts, and it was not until long after 6 o'clock that the finalists in the doubles were evolved.

Finals in Doubles. Miss Browne and Miss Williams worked their way through the upper half of the draw by defeating Miss Marie Wagner and Miss Clara Cassell, 6-4, 6-2. The survivors in the lower half were Miss Helen Gilchrist and Mrs. L. G. Morris, who defeated Miss Leslie Bancroft and Miss Martha Bayard, 6-1, 6-4.

Miss Lengen, with her party, arrived at 4:15 to see the Mallory-Bundy match. She sat in a box on the clubhouse veranda and chatted with friends. Her entrance was not noticed by the spectators and there was no demonstration. She wore a big white hat and a low cut dress of yellow georgette crepe.

Mrs. Mallory, champion, and Mrs. Bundy were given a generous reception by the crowd.

Mrs. Bundy won the first game when Mrs. Mallory smashed out of the court. The score was 7-5.

First Set Thriller. Mrs. Mallory steadied in the second game and broke through the service of the Californian woman, who was still having difficulty in getting over the net, and won the game, 4-2.

In the third game, Mrs. Mallory, with her clever placement shots, succeeded in breaking through the Californian woman's service again and won 4-2. Aided by Mrs. Bundy's errors, Mrs. Mallory took the fourth game, 4-6. Mrs. Bundy broke by breaking through Mrs. Mallory's service for a 4-0, making the count 5 to 3 in games in favor of the champion.

In the fifth game Mrs. Bundy rallied and broke through the Norwesian woman's service, winning 4-1, and by highly brilliant tennis she won the tenth game, 4-2, and made the count in games five-five. They were both playing a most brilliant game and had the stands in constant applause.

Mrs. Mallory went into the lead in the eleventh game, when she made her own service for a 5-3 victory, but Mrs. Bundy again broke the count in the twelfth game, which she won, 4-0.

Molla Takes Set. Mrs. Mallory went into the lead again in the 13th game, however, which she won, 6-3, and then took the 14th and decisive game, 4-2, giving her the first set, 6-4.

Mrs. Mallory started away in the lead in the second set when she won the first game, 4-2, and also the second, 4-1.

Mrs. Bundy seemed to "live" and was swept away by the speedy attack of the champion, who made it four in a row by winning the third and fourth games, 4-1 and 4-1.

Mrs. Bundy then won her first game of the set when she got the fifth game, 4-1, but Mrs. Mallory won the sixth game, 4-3. Mrs. Bundy rallied in the seventh game and won it, 4-0.

The champion then won the eighth game, 4-2, which gave her a 6-2 victory in the set and the match.

It was a question of a skilled, active, young player against an older, slower opponent, and Mrs. Mallory out-encountered the Californian woman throughout after the first bitterly fought match, which went 14 games under a blistering hot sun, and slowed up Mrs. Bundy until she was fairly swept away in the second set.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Abe Attell, who lost the world's featherweight championship to Johnny Kilbane in 1915, hopes to be instrumental in dethroning the champion.

Tom McGinty, who is promoting the title bout between Kilbane and Danny Frush, the Baltimore battler, announced Friday that Attell is going to help train Frush for the battle. Attell will leave for Cleveland in a day or two.

The Frush-Kilbane bout, a 12-round battle to a decision, will be staged in Cleveland Sept. 17.

JAPS CINCH PLACE IN TENNIS FINALS

By Associated Press.
LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 19.—Japan clinched a place in the finals of the 1921 international Davis cup series Friday when Ichihya Kumagae and Zenzo Shimidzu defeated L. S. Deane and Dr. A. H. Fyee of India in a five-set double match, 6-1, 6-1, 2-6, 2-6, 6-0.

The victory puts Japan against Australasia in the Davis cup final contest scheduled at Newport next week, the winner there to qualify against the defending American Davis cup champions at Forest Hills, N. Y., the first week in September.

Despite the fact that the supremacy was decided by Friday's encounter, the two remaining singles events of the Japan-India series will be played as originally scheduled, giving India a consolation chance. Dr. Fyee will oppose Capt. Kumagae Saturday in a singles match.

Buckeyes Have New 'Chick' Harley

JOHNNY STUART AND HIS PASS

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 19.—Ohio State has another football surprise for this fall.

The surprise is Johnny Stuart, the quarterback who will replace "Hog" Workman, now ineligible.

Stuart looks as ready to succeed to Ohio State's selection of All-American fame.

He is a fleet on foot as Harley or Stinchcomb. He can pass a pigskin as accurately as the phenomenal Workman.

Last fall, as captain and halfback of the Ohio freshman team he gained more ground through the varsity than all the backfield men Ohio met in real competition combined.

Great Plunger. Ohio State's line which battered down all Big Ten resistance couldn't stand Stuart's plunging.

Stuart isn't the only strong addition to Coach Jack Wilce's 1921 machine.

Butch Pixley is back with his 240 pounds. He played on the 1919 Ohio team and won a place on several all-star selections.

Following the gridiron season Pixley let down in his studies and became ineligible. He took a whirl at Princeton in 1920, but soon be-

This "Copper" Fails to Worry Dempsey So Far

Harry Darnelle, Washington's fighting cat who whipped 25 or more in a free-for-all, has had his first professional fight.

As a heavyweight title prospect, Darnelle lacked luster. He doesn't know the ring arts. He stands flat-footed, arms dangling and swings.

As a boxer he is a good cop. Ring smartness can't be learned in a day, a month, a year.

Experience is the greatest teacher. The road ahead of Darnelle is long, rough, doubtful. Manufacturing another Dempsey is an ask proposition.

Still Super-Stars Despite Years

The years have slipped off the backs of some of our brightest major league stars unnoticed.

Stars of yesterday—10 or 15 years ago—they are stars still.

What is their secret? How do they do it? Is it genius?

They have courted the fountain of youth—all of them.

Normal living has been their routine. Skipping the gay of the primrose path, they have stayed in the middle of the wholesome road.

Some of them have gray hairs, a few are slightly bald, but their nerves tick on as steadily as well-timed clocks.

Always they have tried their level best in every game.

Spark of Greatness. And in all of them there is the spark of greatness.

They have saved their money, invested it wisely. Most of them have families. Men of their type succeed in any business they undertake.

And here they are: Babe Adams, Pittsburgh Pirates, 38, leading National league pitchers. Thirteen years in majors, 9 in minors.

Frank Baker, New York Yankee third baseman, 35. Eleven years in majors, 2 in minors.

Ty Cobb, manager and centerfielder of Detroit Tigers, 35. With Detroit 17 seasons, 3 in minors.

Larry Gardner, Cleveland Indian, third baseman, 35. Thirteen years in majors, one in minors.

Eddie Collins, Chicago White Sox second baseman, 34. Sixteen years in majors, never in minors.

Walter Johnson, Washington smoke-ball king, 34. Fifteen years in majors, 3 in minors.

Grover Alexander, Chicago Cub pitcher, 34. Eleven years in majors, 4 in minors.

Tris Speaker, manager and centerfielder of the Cleveland Indians, 34. Fourteen years in majors, 3 in minors.

Urban Faber at 33 is having his good players: Jack Quinn, 36; Ed Konechky, 36; Ivan Olson, 36; Bill Killefer, 35; Harry Hooper, 34; Walter Schmidt, 34; Donnie Bush, 33; Clarence Walker, 32; Zack Wheat, 33; Ray Caldwell, 32; Joe Wood, 32; Jim Bagby, 32; Rube Marquard, 32.

And of the younger superiors, Rogers Hornsby, 27; Babe Ruth, 27; Harry Heilmann, 27; George Sisler, 28.

How long will they last? ALEXANDER

CITY NET TOURNEY WILL BEGIN TODAY

Many Local Tennis Stars Entered in Opening Round at Leeper Park.

The Leeper park tennis tournament for the championship of the city begins at 2 o'clock today. Much interest has been displayed in this annual event and a number of the city's best net stars are listed in the entry for this afternoon.

In the first round the players are paired off as follows: Goodman vs. Sobocki, Geo. Swintz vs. Martin, Matern vs. Andrea, Alward vs. Clemens, Julian vs. Wahl, Kingsley vs. Woodward, Campbell vs. Summerhill, and Olson vs. Popp.

In the woman's tennis singles Miss Irene Kehoe and Miss Martha Taylor, the only two entries, will play for the city title.

Always and Swintz are also scheduled to meet in the final play of the tournament for the championship of Leeper park. Swintz won his way to the final by defeating Miller's default on account of sickness while Alward gained the right to meet Swintz by defeating Frank Martin in the semi-finals 6-3 and 7-5.

The boys' singles for Leeper park, Herbert Dickinson won the championship yesterday afternoon, when he defeated Robert Lee 6-3 and 6-4 in the finals. Dickinson is one of the cleverest boy champions Leeper park has ever had.

The officials of the tennis tournament are considering the advisability of staging a doubles tourney for men and women if enough interest is displayed in the finals of the present matches. The doubles tourney has been suggested for some time and it is believed that it will be started at the finish of the present singles events if enough net enthusiasts show that they really want it.
